ONE-EYED CAR DANGEROUS.

How often does the night driver get the impression that he is approaching an advancing motorcycle only to discover a few seconds later that it was another one-eyed highway menace. It is comforting to know that traffic authorities everywhere in Canada are concentrating this year on removing this danger to driving at night.

Driving with only one light, especially if it be the right hand one, leaves other drivers in doubt as to the type of vehicle, and when this occurs on a narrow road, is often dangerous.

More than that, the driver with a single bulb has an insufficient illumination of the road and the other car's stronger lights, even tho not glaring, are often enough to blind him.

Abbott v. Armbruster.

Interest in a come-together auto accident which occurred in town here at the eastern extremity of 1st St. last Fall, will be revived when the case of Laura Abbott versus John Armbruster comes up for a hearing at a sitting of the Supreme Court, in Edmonton. This case is on the list for next week.

Miss Abbott is said to have been one of the four occupants of the coupe which was being driven north on Meridian road on a Sunday morning when it encountered the sedan driven by Mr Armbruster—or, as some might put it, the sedan encountered the soupe.

Schuster v. Litzberger.

The case of Gus Schuster against Philip Litzberger came up in the District Court last week. The case arose out of the drilling of a well, the defendant claiming that, due to the plaintiff's negligence, the well was useless.

After hearing the evidence for the plaintiff, His Honor Judge Crawford adjourned the case to allow plaintiff to attempt to put the well in operating condition, the defendant agreeing to pay for the well if it could be used.

Irvin R Howatt appeared for Schuster; G J Bryan for Litzberger.

United Congregation Meets

A meeting of the congregation of Stony Plain United church was held in the church edifice on the afternoon of Friday last, when the matter of filling the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Rev G A Sauder as pastor, was considered.

The members of the church's Quarterly Board, Messrs T J Hardwick, J F Clarke, R M Gatway, C Wimer and N M Carmichael, and a fair attendance of members of the town church were present. The congregations at Holborn and Brightbank were not represented; but a delegation was present from the Spruce Grove church.

After some discussion, a call was unanimously extended to the Rev W E Sieber, at present the pastor of the United church at Bashaw. The Rev. gentleman was present, and made a short reply. The Brightbank and Holborn congregations have agreed to this arrangement.

The minister-elect will commence his duties at the local church on Sunday, July 8th.

Rev G A Sauder's appointment to the Naco pastorate, in the Stettler Conference, has been confirmed by the Stationing Committee; but there is a possibility of Rev Sauder preaching from the Bashaw pulpit some Sunday during June.

"FRESH FROM THE GARDENS"

A Message From The Prince

In January of this year, the Prince of Wales addressed a message to the youth of Great Britain at a large meeting held in the Royal Albert Hall, London, England. That message is just as applicable to the youth of Canada as it is to the youth of the Old Land, and we, therefore, reproduce the speech, in part, as follows:

Youth cannot long remain a spectator of life, it will only be a short time before the work of the world will be placed on your shoulders to carry. Many tasks wait for your help; knowledge to be discovered, open spaces to be peopled, natural resources to be developed, sickness to be conquered, and wrongs to be righted. With these high quests before you, you will realize that the mere acquisition of material things is not in itself the fulfilment of an individual or a national purpose, and is as little, compared with the satisfaction derived from your own effort, especially when that effort advances human welfare and happiness.

I want you to understand that we are not just facing a few months of 'grin and bear it,' but that we must get into training for a long period of work—hard work and effort, sustained despite possible discouragements. You must be prepared, as others have been before, to enlist 'for the duration,' without asking how much may in the long run be required of you.

You cannot hope to influence directly the trend of international affairs, but close at hand is a domestic problem, vast and baffling if looked at in the mass, though easier to help when broken up into individual pieces. It is made up of men and women, boys and girls. I am, as you will have guessed, thinking of unemployment. I am thinking now neither in terms of economics nor of politics but of each member of the unemployed population as a single, separate personality, beset by depression, labouring under a sense of frustration and futility—a black wall in front of him which he can neither climb over nor scramble round. My appeal here is not to statesmen, nor even to philanthropists, but to all those who are in work to play the part of neighbour and friend to the man out of work. That is the open road of duty and a short cut to happiness all round. There is no central machinery here in London that can provide a substitute for the good neighbour.

The enemy today is depression and apathy. Let us attack them with two of our old-fashioned characteristics—good sense and good humour. I believe there are groups of the unemployed here and there, dead sick of prolonged idleness, who are themselves feeling out toward ways of giving their untried labour in co-operative effort for the help of others in need. It is up to us to back such attempts with every possible support. Get together wherever this burden lies heaviest, face up to the most urgent local need, and see if the community on the spot cannot make its own self-directed contribution toward this vast problem. So far as is humanly possible let us break it up into little pieces and refuse to be browbeaten into paralysis by its size. I am talking, I repeat, neither on the economic nor on the political plane, but on the humane plane of simple friendship in those places where the clouds are darkest, where the pits are closed or the furnaces damped down. What matter if some trifling blunder is committed here or some project fails there. The very attempt of the community to achieve some small betterment for the sake of the workless in their midst will lift the general level of hope and make easier every national solution by statesmen and economists.

The world passed into a new age with the end of the Great War. Never was a new age born in greater agony, nor in a more difficult environment for healthy and normal growth. What we make of it as a democracy is of vital concern not only to ourselves but to the whole world.

The message that I have tried to give you is a twofold one.—First, for a fresh response to national service, for a greater spirit of unselfish and adventurous helpfulness in the midst of problems which our ablest men find difficult to unravel.

The second point is that the opportunity for service is at our door—in our own village, in our own town.

Canadian Tobacco Exports

Dominion Largest Exporter In Empire Of Tobacco To Great Britain

Canada in the first four months of 1932 has definitely established herself as the largest exporter among countries of the Empire of unmanufactured tobacco to Great Britain.

From January to April, a report of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics shows, Canada exported 6,683,315 pounds of tobacco compared with 2,509,766 pounds for the same period of 1931. The total imports into Great Britain aggregated 45,236,021 pounds for the four months, with British Empire countries supplying 10,075,085 pounds.

Canadian Bacon For Britain

Mother Country Buys More Bacon From Canada Than From U.S.

Great Britain is at present buying more bacon from Canada than from the United States. A report issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics shows that imports of bacon into Great Britain from Canada, not including hams, in the first four months of this year totalled 5,727,500 pounds. In 1930 the imports were 3,718,700 pounds, and they dropped to 408,500 pounds in the same period of 1931.

In the first four months of 1930, British imports from the United States amounted to 25,811,000 pounds. This dropped in the same period of 1931 to 8,925,900 pounds, and in 1932 to 2,509,700.

Will Use Bay Route

Famous French Grain Firm Will Make Big Shipment Of Wheat

Extrius, famous French grain firm, has purchased a quarter of a million bushels of wheat in western Canada, that will be shipped this season over the Hudson Bay route to France. It was definitely learned from official sources. Through a New York agency the French firm has completed the purchase of the grain and gave the first sign of completion between important grain firms over the use of the new Bay route in shipping grain to European ports. Already nearly two million bushels have been shipped to Churchill for the Continental Grain Company. This group will export at least one million bushels this summer.

L. B. Cusick, Canadian president of the Continental Grain Company, is making a strong effort to obtain cargoes for the four or five boats his company will bring into Churchill this summer for the shipment of their grain.

"If a reasonable amount of incoming cargo can be obtained and the insurance rates lowered slightly, the Hudson Bay route is a cinch," he declared in an interview.

"We firmly believe the insurance rates will be cut this summer, and we expect the people of western Canada to support their new seaport to the extent of obtaining incoming cargoes," he said.

Trains On Rubber Tires

Forerunner Of A New Era In Rail Comfort

The pneumatic-tired railroad coach which made a trial trip from Cleveland to Akron and return this week may easily prove a forerunner of a new era in rail comfort. Trunk lines are speeding up their schedules. Palace car builders are getting away from stereotyped interiors. The pounding of steel wheels on steel rails may ultimately be outlawed as needless.

Railroads in general have been slow to copy devices which give their competitors advantages in the race for business. Be the reasons what they may—and some of them, are obvious enough—rail lines have suffered by the motor industry's avid adoption and improvement of such things as rubber tires, lighter engines, less rigid schedules, better coach construction and other factors. A liberal public attitude toward the use of highways is part of the story.

Tires of rubber, and particularly air-inflated tires, have played a large part in a transportation evolution. If railroads can make use of them, as recent experiments indicate, they hope to, some check may be put on the trek of passengers from rail to highways.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Possibility Of Oil In Northern Alberta

Geologists Believe Ancient Rock Formations Are An Indication

Rock formations in the northern section of Alberta indicate possibilities of oil in commercial quantities. This opinion was expressed at Ottawa before the Royal Society of Canada when a number of geologists described the districts of Mountain Park, Peace River, Wainwright and Viking as containing marine sediments. This would indicate, they said, the district once formed a part of the vast ocean that covered what now forms the three prairie provinces. The geologists' reports indicate that the formations are about 150,000,000 years old.

Contract Bridge

By Hamilton B. Hatch, Cuvendish Club, Toronto

Systems in Contract Bridge
The average contract bridge player, at the present time is agog over the controversy raging around the different systems of play. There are four principal systems now being exploited by their different sponsors. Order of importance they rank as follows:

1st. The Approach-Forcing System (Sponsored by Culbertson).

2nd. The Official System (Sponsored by Lens et Al).

3rd. The One Over One (Sponsored by Geo. Reith and The Katcherbocker Whist Club).

4th. The Vanderbilt Club (Sponsored by Harold Vanderbilt).

A system in Contract may be defined as an attempt to put into a form easy to learn, the methods the good card player have always used. This being so, it is certain that, as most card players use the same methods with slight variations, any system can differ from any other system only slightly, as they say. The variations in all four systems are slight and the good contract player is, as a rule, able to master all the systems, and can, if asked to do so, play any system his partner desires to play.

The Approach-Forcing System

The salient points of the Approach-Forcing System are as follows:

1st. The opening bid of one which means a minimum of 2½ honor tricks and four playing tricks, and may have a maximum of six honor tricks and seven or eight playing tricks.

2nd. The weak no trump takeout by the partner of the original bidder. This is made on a maximum of one and one-half honor tricks and a minimum of one honor trick, or in exceptional cases, on less than one honor trick. The takeout denies normal support in suit, originally bid and practically warns partner that for that particular deal, the partnership must be satisfied with partial score.

3rd. The Jump-Shift Response. This is a jump bid in a suit other than the suit originally bid and is a demand bid requiring the partnership to keep the bidding open until a game contract is arrived at. It is made by the responding hand usually on a minimum of two and one-half honor tricks, or sometimes less when the hand distribution is favorable.

4th. The Original Two Bid. Based on five and one-half honor tricks as a minimum and demands that bidding be kept open by partnership until a game contract is arrived at. The tendency lately, by users of this system is to limit the two bid to hands which will make game with even less than one honor trick in partner's hand.

5th. The Jump Overall. A jump bid made by opponents of original bidder, is a strong invitation to partner of the overcaller to keep the bidding open provided partner has the equivalent of one honor trick. If however the overcaller's partner has less than one honor trick he may pass.

6th. The Informative Double. A bid made as an overall and demands a response from partner of double provided there is no intervening bid. It is usually made with strength in the major suits and is a fighting not a defensive bid. With the balance of strength in the hand of the doubler's partner, game is likely in the hand.

7th. The Overcall. The overcalls of the suit bid originally by one of the same suit. If the opening bid is one heart and the opponents overcall with two hearts, such an overcall means control of the heart suit, i.e. either a void in hearts, the singleton ace, the ace small, or the ace king or ace queen. This bid is the most powerful bid in the approach forcing system, used definitely as a slam signal and practically guarantees game in any four card suit that the partner of the overcaller has.

The synopsis given above contains practically all the salient features of the Approach-Forcing System. Generally it may be said that in this system whenever there is a four card biddable suit in the hand, this suit is bid in preference to no trump. A biddable four card suit may be defined as one which contains two high honors, one of which must be the ace or king, and the other queen or jack. The no trump opening bid is made only when the hand contains two and one-half honor tricks, no four or five card biddable suit, and has a balanced pattern.

In the next article the main features of the other systems will be outlined.

DEFINITE HELP FOR DWELLERS IN APARTMENTS

Odorless way found to cook fish, cauliflower and cabbage

CANAPAR IS A PRODUCT OF HAMILTON FIRM

Life there a woman, in apartment, duplex or home, who has not at some time or other reluctantly foregone fish, cabbage, and cauliflower because of the odor they give off when being cooked? Or who has not suffered from other people close by who cooked these foods regardless?

Canapar entirely does away with this annoyance. More than that, it actually improves flavor and food value. Cooking in Canapar parallels the famous French method of simmering and confining food and its flavors to the closed casserole.

Canapar comes in large sheets, in a handy-size package. When boiling vegetables you simply wet the sheet of Canapar and make a bag similar to a pudding bag. If you are steaming them you line your steamer with Canapar, arrange food and seasoning, and fold back corners of the Canapar to prevent steam from dripping

Boiled or steamed fish is particularly delicious done this way. No fishy odor in kitchen, no pungent ketchup when roasting meat, line the pan with Canapar. It prevents the fats and juices from dripping and thus eliminates source of the pan afterwards.

Canapar saves fuel. You can cook three vegetables simultaneously in the same casserole with without interchanging of flavors. And it is very economical. Just use one sheet of Canapar for cooking in the towel rack to dry. Use it over and over again.

Lots of women use Canapar for a dish cloth—it is so silky and satisfactory and does not spread lint. This is a particularly good use if you happen to pierce the sheet of Canapar while testing the food during the cooking of it. Canapar is made by the PARASOL CO. of the famous heavy wadded paper in the Green box.

Special Offer

Italian Air Fleet Coming

Twenty Sea Planes Plan Trip To Chicago Next Year

A second Italian air fleet will fly the Atlantic coast this year with the purpose of celebrating the tenth year of Fascism and also the World's Fair in Chicago.

A fleet of 20 twin-motored seaplanes, under command of General Isidoro Balbo, the Italian Minister, the same man who commanded the first armada to America a year ago, will undertake the flight. The ultimate objective will be Chicago.

The route probably will be via Ireland, Iceland, Greenland, Labrador and Canadian points.

Scientists At Ottawa Suggest That There Be Two Major Divisions Of Geological Time

Standard time consisting of eons, eras, suberas and periods is the aim of the national committee on stratigraphical nomenclature. Dr. F. J. Alcock, of the geological survey of Canada, chairman, told Section 4 of the Royal Society of Canada meeting at Ottawa.

It is the opinion of the committee that geological time previous to the development of abundant life on the earth's surface is at least as great as geological time from that development until the present moment. The suggestion is that, therefore, there should be two major divisions, and that these be known as "eons."

Seven hundred million years was the estimate of some members of the section of the length of the latter eon, and they thought the former to be much longer. Granite rocks in Manitoba, have been stated to have an age of 2,000,000,000 years.

At the same session a paper by Prof. J. S. Delury, of the University of Manitoba, speculated on the earth's development and composition. The belief expressed was that the centre of the earth consists of heavy, dense metallic substances; that its crust consisted of lighter rocks and that in between lies the great zone of fowage and adjustments. The earth, Prof. Delury stated, is losing heat in exceptionally large amounts from certain more or less restricted belts of the earth's surface. Once, millions of years ago, the escape of heat in this way occurred in Canada; now it is chiefly in the vicinity of the Hawaiian Islands in the Pacific Ocean. Supporting his thesis, Prof. Delury reported that the temperature rises one degree every 400 feet down in the Frood mine of Northern Ontario. In Hawaii the temperature rises one degree in every 50 feet.

How aerial photography has achieved results for geologists which on foot they would have been years in securing was shown by D. A. Nichols of the geological survey, who exhibited an unusual series of photographs taken by the Royal Canadian Air Force. In these pictures, taken chiefly in the Athabasca, Great Bear and Great Slave Lake and Arctic areas of Canada, land forms such as faults, dykes, folds, fjords, eskers and beaches (formed years ago) were clearly defined and some were shown to extend for many miles. Some of these were recognized from descriptions given by members of the geological survey as many as 40 years ago.

Further light, of value to miners and prospectors, of British Columbia, was thrown on the body of granite rocks known as the Coast Batholith, which extends 1,200 miles from a point near the "Inland" head of the northward and westward into Alaska. The survey work of the geological survey, which began in this area as far back as 1851, has provided additional information year by year. Once it was thought the possibilities of finding valuable deposits were as good in one part of the area as another. The geological survey is indicating where the prospects are good and where they are not. Detailed studies, for instance, have shown that mineral deposits occur associated with certain types of rock and the mapping of these areas provides valuable guides.

Authors of papers given were Dr. Forrest Kerr, of the geological survey; Dr. S. J. Schofield, of the University of British Columbia, and Dr. H. C. Gunning, also of the geological survey.

Lessons By Radio

Use Of Broadcasting To Further Education In The West

The use of radio broadcasting to extend the benefits of university training was urged upon the 15th national conference of Canadian universities at Ottawa by Professor E. A. Corbett, director of extra-mural relations at the University of Alberta, and conductor of the university's radio station, CKUA. This university has been a pioneer in the use of the radio for educational purposes in Canada and has developed a considerable volume of educational broadcasting which covers practically the whole province.

Professor Corbett recently appeared before the parliamentary committee on radio broadcasting with a brief prepared in the interest of educational broadcasting and had made a study of this work in those sections of the United States in which this work has been carried on to a considerable extent.

Some of the work of Canadian universities, aimed at making Canada a truly bilingual country, was described.

The subject of the first session was "Modern Language Teaching," and dealt almost entirely with the teaching of French in English universities, and the teaching of English in French speaking universities.

Abbe Alexander Vachon, Laval University, observed that practically every Quebec member of the House of Commons could express himself adequately in the English language, and that many could speak with equal facility in either language. At Laval an attempt was made to give every graduate a complete mastery of the English language, even though he might enter the college with no English.

The British Way

Right Of Free Speech Not Curtailed In Hyde Park

While the great American people—followed by the great Canadian people in their turn—are falling over themselves to put down the right of free speech when it is even faintly suspected that there may be a tinge of red in it, it is refreshing to read that in the land of true liberty they do things differently.

Word comes in the English press of the Communist celebrations in London on May Day. Hyde Park was filled with Communists, 30 speeches were made simultaneously, and great resolutions passed. Then they went home. No one was injured and the police merely looked on.—Vancouver Province.

Damascus, Syria, is said to be the oldest city in the world.

A FASCINATING MODEL—DOES FOR SHEER COTTONS AS WELL AS THOSE OF STURDIER CHARACTER

Nautical blue and white print in batiste, because it is so popular, is chosen by this smart junior. And don't you think it is effective? The yoked bodice and inset at the front to stimulate a bolero are of plain batiste. It tones with the blue shade.

Other schemes such as yellow and white in plique, striped cotton weave in red, white and blue with plain white and plain pink sportswear lined with white handkerchief linen dotted in pink used for contrast are adorable.

Style No. 433 is designed for sizes 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. Size 8 requires 1 1/2 yards of 35-inch material with 3/4 yard of 35-inch contrasting and 2 yards of binding.

Canadian Radio League Officials Regret That Salaried Commission Will Conduct Broadcast System

Noise May Accompany Auroral Display Possibility Being Studied By Royal Society Of Canada

The question of whether sounds sometimes accompany auroral displays in the sky came in for discussion before section three of the Royal Society of Canada at Ottawa.

Just because the currently held belief as to the cause and nature of aurora does not provide for any sound to be heard, Dr. J. S. Plaskett, director of the astrophysical observatory on Vancouver Island and the holder of the Flavelle medal of the Royal Society of Canada for 1932, thinks that the great body of evidence that sounds have been heard should not be discarded.

He read a paper before the section, prepared by Dr. C. S. Beale, of the observatory staff, in which it was stated that the only interpretation of the observations which seems to fit all the facts is that both the sounds and low level apparitions sometimes reported are real and that they constitute normal though perhaps unusual accompaniments of other auroral phenomena.

"If this is so," it is stated further, "there must be some definite physical process taking place close to the earth's surface which is able to produce the effects that have been observed. The aurora has long been considered to be electrical in origin and the hypothesis that the auroral sounds and low level displays are due to some sort of electrical discharge near the surface of the earth seems a very reasonable one."

Assist Poultrymen

Hon. Robert Weir, Minister Of Agriculture, Promises Continuation Of Government Aid

Continuation of the assistance given by the government to poultry breeders desirous of securing registered cockerels for their flocks, was announced by Hon. Robert Weir, Minister of Agriculture. The assistance amounts to transportation charges and a sum of $1.25 per bird toward the purchase price providing the cockerels pass the inspection tests and are shipped in lots of ten or more. The purchases must be made from bona fide breeders entered under the federal policies of registration or record of performance. There is no restriction to the sale price.

Wealth Hoarded In States

Money estimated to amount to $1,300,000,000 is being hoarded by Americans in the United States, President Hoover, in a recent appeal for the release of this money, stated that every dollar thus hoarded was equal to "the destruction of from five to ten dollars in credit."

Regret that a salaried commission was to be appointed to conduct Canada's proposed new radio broadcasting system was expressed by officials of the Canadian Radio League, which organization was largely instrumental in the presentation to the parliamentary committee of the bills for the radio policy adopted at the session just concluded. It had been felt by the league that the commission should be composed of voluntary workers, "thus ensuring greater freedom from political interference, and constituting a buffer between the government and the operating organization."

A statement was issued by Allan Plaut, honorary secretary, following a meeting at Ottawa at which it was shown that the organization had been financed, since its inception 18 months ago, at a total cost of $5,000, more than half of which, Mr. Plaut said, was contributed by members of the executive.

The league will remain in existence as a "watchdog and friendly critic" of the proposed "Canadian Radio Broadcasting Commission." It was stated, and will branch out with a view to securing more members and a wider organization.

Satisfaction was expressed at the successful conclusion of the campaign directed by the league and at the terms of the Radio bill adopted by parliament, except that it was felt, if salaries were to be paid the commissioners, they should be larger than those provided. The legislation authorized a salary of $10,000 for the chairman and $8,000 for the two commissioners.

Graham Spry, chairman of the league, said that the salary of the chairman did not equal that paid either responsible business positions or leading university presidents. The commission would handle as much as $4,000,000 a year, he said and would be controlling programmes that would be listened to by the whole of Canada for a number of hours a day. Such responsibility should be vested only in the most intelligent and competent hands, "but the commission, as proposed, cut off the possibility of voluntary services and does not pay enough to ensure that at least the chairman will be an experienced and responsible man," he said.

Indian Athlete

Native At Fort Chipewyan Makes High Jump Record

Canadian Olympic committee officials seeking point winners for the Los Angeles games might well turn to latent material among Indian tribes in the Northwest Territories if an athletic record in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police annual report is accurate.

According to Inspector H. Royal-Gagnon, a young Indian whom he does not name jumped six feet one inch at a field meet held at Fort Chipewyan. Knowing nothing of the high jumping art, the Indian, the inspector relates, "just jumps over."

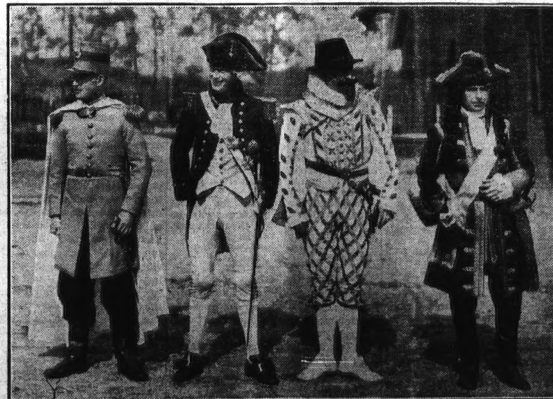

Some Counter

"My husband is a real prize to the bank," said the boastful wife of a bank clerk. "The way in which he handles notes is truly wonderful—counts them like lightning, without ever making a mistake." "Really," said the friend to whom the statement was made. "Never a mistake at all?" "No—well, at least he is never out more than a few coppers!"

HISTORICAL GROUP OF OFFICERS REHEARSE FOR ALDERSHOT TATTOO

The brilliant display which will be witnessed this month, when the Aldershot Tattoo takes place in England, can be judged from the frequent photographs of the elaborate preparations which are reaching Canada. Above is an historical group of officers: Left to right: Zouave officer; Lord Nelson; Sir Francis Drake, and the Duke of Marlborough.

HEIFAT WOULD GO

Activity Molted it

Exercise is the enemy of fat. If you are overburdened with superfluous flesh, call up reserves of energy to fight it. Do as this lady did:—

"During the past six months, I have made steady improvement. Whilst taking Kruschen Salts, I have reduced 28 lbs. in weight during that period and have benefited greatly from greater agility and liveliness—almost directly attributable to that famous preparation."—Mrs. W. P.

You can take off fat with Kruschen Salts if you will take one-half teaspoon, in hot water every morning before breakfast, modify your diet and exercise regularly.

While you are losing fat you will be gaining energy—in endurance—in ambition. Your skin will grow clearer, and your eyes will sparkle with the good health that Kruschen brings. The old arm chair won't hold you any more—you'll want to be up and doing—you'll enjoy work and active recreation and you'll sleep like a top. You'll lose fat, and probably live years longer.

Saskatchewan Government Provides For Temporary Curtailment Of Remedies In View Of Conditions

The following information is published by the authority of the Hon. E. B. Miles, Minister of Agriculture of the Government of the Province of Saskatchewan.

Taxes: Title to land sold for taxes will not be issued until June 15th, 1932, unless the municipality or council, through the issue of a certificate of title to land sold for taxes, under the new Act authorizing the postponement of issue of Certificate of Title to Land sold for Taxes, any owner of land lying within a municipality falls or refuses to grant the application and to issue the certificate of postponement, the owner may apply to a Judge of the district court for the required certificate, and the decision of the judge in the matter shall be final. If you are unable to take an appeal before a Judge of the District Court, you may ask the Debt Adjustment Commissioner for assistance.

If your land has been sold for taxes in 1931 or 1932, and in the preceding year, you are advised to consult the Secretary-Treasurer of your Rural Municipality, or County, without delay, because after June 15th, if a certificate is not issued to you, title to your land may pass to the purchaser of the tax sale certificate.

The following real and personal property of an execution debtor and his family is free from seizure by virtue of all writs of execution, namely:

1. The necessary and ordinary clothing of himself and his family.

2. Furniture, household furnishings and dairy utensils, to the extent of one hundred dollars.

3. The necessary food for the family of the execution debtor during six months.

4. Four oxen, horses, or mules, or any four of them, six cows, six sheep, four pigs, and fifty domestic fowls besides the animals the execution debtor may have chosen to keep for food purposes, and food for the same for the months of November, December, January, February, March and April, or for such of these months or portions thereof as may follow the date of seizure provided such seizure be made between the first day of August and the thirtieth day of April next ensuing.

5. The harness necessary for four animals, one wagon or two carts, one motor vehicle, and scythes, one breaking plough, one cross plough, one set of harrows, one horse rake, one sewing machine, one reaper or binder, one set of sleighs and one seed drill.

6. The books of a professional man.

7. The tools and necessary implements to the extent of two hundred dollars used by the execution debtor in the practice of his trade or profession.

8. Seed grain sufficient to sow all his land under cultivation not exceeding one hundred and sixty acres, at the rate of two bushels per acre for seed and four bushels of potatoes for plant.

9. The homestead, provided the same be not more than one hundred and sixty acres; in case it be more the surplus may be sold subject to any lien or encumbrance thereon.

10. The house and buildings occupied by the execution debtor and also the lot or lots on which the same are situated according to the registered plan of the same, to the extent of three thousand dollars.

In the event of a chattel mortgage having been given covering horses, machinery, etc., the debtor is still protected under the Exemptions Act for the chattels mentioned above. Should the subject matter of the judgment upon which an execution is issued be the amount due on such machinery, horses, etc., then such articles are not exempt.

In view of prevailing conditions, the Government of the Province of Saskatchewan deemed it necessary to provide for the temporary curtailment of remedies for the enforcement of payment of certain debts and therefore enacted the Debt Adjustment Act, 1932. This Act extends protection to residents of the province who are actual residents and personally bona fide engaged in, or principal part of whose income is derived from farming operations in the province, or to residents who own their residence, or who are purchasers of their residence under an agreement for sale, or who are retail merchants and includes the executors or administrators of deceased residents if the beneficiaries or any of them are residents of the province.

This Act is for the purpose of assisting debtors who are having difficulties with their creditors. The Commissioner, who administers the Act, endeavours to settle such difficulties but in the event of it being impossible to arrive at an amicable settlement, the Commissioner is authorized

"I Was Terribly Run Down"

Says Mrs. Doughty: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Built Me Up"

Wrought Marvelous Change

Brantford, Ont. "I was a terribly nervous and run-down condition; very pale and with no ambition. I took three boxes of the Pills, and I soon began to feel like a new woman. No trouble to do my household work. The pills built me up and put me in first-class condition."

Mrs. Richard Rusk, Robin, Man. writes: "Diphtheria left our daughter, Beth, a nervous wreck. She was unable to continue at school. I gave her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and she changed in her few weeks. She is enjoying splendid health—and we do so, too. 'Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved her life.'"

Don't allow yourself or your daughter to be robbed of health and vigour. Take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and you are no temporary relief. They banish run-down or nervous conditions by creating new blood, which imparts health, vigour and vitality. 50c—at your druggist's.

ized to issue a certificate which would stop any legal action brought by the creditor leading to the seizure of chattels under chattel mortgage, and cancellation of agreements for sale, also re-assessment of articles bought under conditional sale agreements and lien notes. The Act, however, does not apply to actions which have been decided before the case is referred to the Debt Adjustment Commissioner. Debtors may apply to the Commissioner for the cancellation of agreements for sale, etc., where final order has not been issued by the courts.

In the event of a certificate being issued, the resident must comply with the Commissioner's directions as to the disposition of his property.

The Commissioner of the Debt Adjustment Act is authorized to act as Trustee and Trustee under the Bankruptcy Act and if any farmer is so badly involved that there are no prospects of his being able to pay his debts, then the Commissioner can arrange for bankruptcy proceedings. The farmer is required to make a deposit of an amount which will take care of the cash disbursements, but no fees are charged for services of the Department.

The rights of mortgages under crop liens are not affected by the year in that no lease shall affect more than one-third of the crop unless the mortgagee has purchased the seed and paid the cost of threshing and a share of the cost of binder twice proportionate to the share of the crop to which he is entitled under the mortgage. A farmer who is a lessee, purchaser or mortgagor under any lease, agreement of sale or mortgage, may, in the year 1932, out of the share of the crop belonging to the lessor, vendor or mortgagor, pay one year's taxes upon the land on which the crop is grown, and, in such case, upon production of the receipt of the mortgagee for such payment, the lessor, vendor or mortgagor shall be entitled only to the one-third share of the crop less the amount shown upon such receipt.

Seizures under any lien agreement, or conditional sale agreement under the Farm Implements Act, or the Conditional Sales Act, must be made by the sheriff of the judicial district within which the seizure is to be made, or under his direction. Generally, this applies to articles bought on the time payment plan such as farm machinery, automobiles, washing machines, cream separators, horses and cattle.

The vendor's right of recovery of unpaid purchase money on articles sold after April 13th, 1932, on credit, or partly for cash and partly on credit, if the vendor has a lien thereon, is restricted to his lien upon the articles sold and his right of repossession of such articles unless in the case of sale of land with chattels upon an entire consideration. In other words, if you buy a piggy on the time payment plan and cannot meet the payments, the vendor can repossess the piggy, but cannot take action against you for the unpaid balance.

The Debt Adjustment Act does not afford protection to urban dwellers who live in rented houses or apartments.

Information regarding the rights and remedies available to debtors is cheerfully given by Commissioners Debt Adjustment Act, Regina.

Used Right Back

A widow, the owner of a small shop, was usually escorted home by an admirer who carried the cash-bag containing the day's takings. It was always heavy.

"You must be doing 'well,'" said the man frequently.

"On, ay," the widow would reply, "it's a good business!"

But she did not disclose the fact that besides the moderate takings the bag contained the counter weights. The canny lover only discovered that fact after marriage.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

JUNE 12

JUDAH THE TRUE BROTHER

Golden Text: "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity."—Psalm 133.

Lesson: Genesis 44:15 to 45:15. Devotional Reading: Psalm 26:1-7.

Explanations and Comments

Judah's Plea For Benjamin, 44:18-24—Read chapters 42 and 43. Sincerity and depth of feeling mark Judah's plea throughout. He first of all recalls to Joseph's mind—the great man who is "even as Pharaoh,"—the way in which he had insisted upon bringing of Benjamin to him. He had asked the brothers if they had father or brother, and they told him that their father was living and with him was the only remaining child of his mother, "and his father loveth him." "Bring him down," the great lord had said, "that I may set mine eyes upon him." And when they had said that the lad could not leave his father, that his father would die if he did, the great man had emphatically declared, "Except your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more."

Very touching is Judah's picture of his father's reluctance to part with Benjamin, a reluctance overcome at last by dire hunger. But his father had reminded them at parting of how he had said to Joseph, "and if ye take this one from me, and harm befall him," he cried, "ye will bring down my grey hairs with sorrow to Sheol."

"Now therefore, when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad is not with us, seeing that his life is bound up in the lad's life," thus Judah speaks, trying to picture what could not must be—"it will come to pass that he will die." He had become surety with his father for the lad, and he ended his pathetic plea by begging to be made himself a slave in the place of Benjamin. How noble Judah appears at this moment!

"Oh, how much of poetry and of pathos lie behind some of the roughest men, only waiting for some great sorrow to smite upon the upper crust, and bore the artesian well!"—F. B. Meyer.

Joseph Reveals Himself To His Brothers, 45:1-15.—The stern ruler breaks down as Judah ends his intercession for Benjamin. He is satisfied with the result of his test. His brothers are not the men at whose hands he himself had suffered. The time was ripe for making known to them the fact that he, the great ruler in Egypt, was none other than Joseph, their brother. God, too, was satisfied. The brothers were ready to stand together, and it was time to bring them down into Egypt, there to lay the foundation of a national life. There follows a dramatic scene.

Joseph sends away his Egyptian attendants that he may be alone with his brothers. Bursting into tears, he exclaims, "I am Joseph, your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt." They are amazed and troubled, and he hastens to add: "Be ye grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither; for God did send me before you to preserve life. It was not you that sent me hither, but God."

Recipes For This Week

(By Betty Barclay)

COFFEE BAVARIAN CREAM

One tablespoon gelatine, ¼ cup cold water, 1 pt. whipping cream, ½ cup sugar, ½ cup strong boiled coffee, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, a pinch of salt. Soak gelatine in cold water 5 minutes. Dissolve in hot coffee, then add sugar. Set bowl containing mixture in pan of set bowl and stir until it begins to thicken. Add cream, beaten until stiff, and flavoring. Turn into wet mold and chill.

JELLIED TONGUE

Wash and scrub a beef tongue in salted water and boil until tender. Remove skin and place the tongue in a saucepan. Add two onions, one stalk of celery, four cloves, and salt and pepper. Cover with liquor in which tongue was boiled. Add one blade of mace, one bay leaf, one onion, one bunch of parsley and one teaspoon sugar. Simmer for two hours. Remove tongue. For each pint of the liquor add one tablespoon of gelatine that has been soaked in cold water. Stir for two minutes over very low fire. Strain and pour over tongue. Chill thoroughly, garnish with watercress, and serve.

Preparing For Conference

Preparations for the Imperial Economic Conference are going forward. A sub-committee of the Dominion cabinet and four committees made up largely of departmental experts, have been constituted to arrange for the empire meeting.

MUTUAL GAINS EXPECTED FROM EMPIRE PARLEY

London, England.—Canada goes to the Imperial Economic Conference in Ottawa in July with the clear cut thought that there must be mutual gains and advantages to all component parts of "the greatest commonwealth of free peoples in the history of the world—the British Empire." Prime Minister R. B. Bennett declared here in addressing a banquet climaxing the ninth annual convention of the Western Ontario Conservative Association.

Speaking to 1,700 persons seated at dinner—the largest political banquet in the history of western Ontario—the Prime Minister dealt with matters of trade and commerce and with various aspects of the forthcoming Imperial Conference. "In July, next month," he said, "we gather together as partners to see how, as far as possible, we may keep our trade within this partnership. We comprise the greatest commonwealth of free peoples the world has ever known. We must trade to the advantage not of one but of all. There must be mutual gains and advantages. There must be mutual arrangements for the benefit of all parts of the empire. We need your help and assistance as the people of Canada. As a cross section of public opinion you are representative and we need behind us the collective weight of a solid public opinion."

Agreements must be reached at the Imperial Conference, declared the Canadian Prime Minister, that shall be to the perpetual mutual advantage of all parts of the empire.

Will Invest Millions In Gold Properties

Increase In Canada's Production Attracts British Mining Circles

Montreal, Que.—Nine million dollars of British, Dutch, and Swiss capital is on deposit in Geneva banks at present, awaiting investment in northern Quebec gold properties, stated A. H. Carlisle, British financier, during an interview here. Fully 40 per cent of the amount would be used for the purchase of Canadian mining equipment, while the balance was scheduled for prospecting work in connection with the opening up of new districts, he said. Actual work would start within two months.

Mr. Carlisle, who is representing the continental backers of the undertaking, stated that the steady increase in gold production in the first quarter of 1932 in both Quebec and Ontario had attracted much attention in British mining circles where the need of fostering the production of gold throughout the empire was considered of paramount importance.

Failed To Make Will

London Paper Says Earl Of Egmont Died Intestate

London, England.—The Daily Mail said the Earl of Egmont, former Priddy, Alberta, rancher, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident outside Southampton on May 6, died intestate.

The newspaper said application for grant of administration of his estate in the names of George Perceval, his brother, who arrived here a few days ago, and H. J. Washbrough, partner of his solicitors, would be made shortly.

Sight Sea Monster

Strange Marine Creature Causes Thrill In Pacific Coastal Waters

A 40-foot sea monster, colored blue and white, with bulbous body and great head, has been sighted twice within the past week in the waters between Vancouver Island and the mainland of British Columbia, about 100 miles north of Vancouver.

It was observed on both occasions from the Canadian Pacific steamer "Princess Adelaide," the second time it provided a thrilling close-up by swimming right under the stern of the vessel.

Won the Derby

Metion Picture Comedian, Well-Known To Canadians, Owner Of Speedy Colt

Epsom Downs, Eng.—Tom Wallis, motion picture comedian, director and sportsman, whose colt, April the Fifth, won the Derby, is well known to Canadian motion picture audiences. He has produced a series of comedy successes at the Aldwych Theatre in London, teamed with Ralph Lynn, known as the "comedian with the monocle." Their joint appearances in the motion pictures "Plunder," "One Embarrassing Night," and "Tons of Money," have been well received in Canada and the United States.

Walls has been an active figure in development of the British film industry. He personally directed the film version of Frederick Lonsdale's "On Approval" in which he also played a leading role.

Scientists To Visit West

Going To Post At Fort Rae To Secure Data

Montreal, Que.—En route to Fort Rae in the Northwest Territories to make scientific observations, four young Englishmen left Montreal for Edmonton. In common with scientists the world over, the observations will be made as part of the 1932-33 polar year program.

Those leaving for Western Canada were: W. A. Grinstead, J. L. Kennedy, W. R. Morgans and E. A. Sheppard of the meteorological office, London. The post at Fort Rae will be maintained from August 1, 1932, until August 31, 1933.

Award For Military Units

Four Regiments Have Been Given Battle Honor

Ottawa, Ont.—Four cavalry and two infantry regiments of the non-permanent active militia have been awarded the battle honor "North West Canada, 1885," according to an announcement from the department of national defence here.

These regiments now perpetuate units of the old militia who took part in the Riel Rebellion. They are the 12th Manitoba Dragoons, the 16th Canadian Light Horse, the South Alberta Horse, the Manitoba Horse, the Winnipeg Light Infantry, and the Prince Albert Volunteers.

Duty On Vegetables

Beets, Cauliflowers and Peas Come Under New Ruling

Ottawa, Ont.—The Department of Natural Revenue announced in a recent bulletin that the value for duty on beets shall be the true invoice value in Canadian funds plus two cents a pound. For cauliflower, the value for duty shall be the true invoice plus four cents a pound, and for green peas, the invoice value plus two and a half cents. These are now in effect, and in the case of beets, continues until February 15, 1933, for cauliflower and peas, the regulation terminates on November 30 next.

Seeking Agreement

London, Eng.—An important delegation representing the Lancashire cotton industry, sailed for Canada on the "Empress of Australia," with the hope of making some agreements with Canadian textile interests in order they may be able to return to England and draw up a report for the British Government, for consideration in connection with the Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa.

Alberta Pioneer Dead

Pincher Creek, Alberta.—John Plummer Marcellus, member of the first Alberta legislature in 1905 and pioneer of the foothills, is dead. He was 90 years old and predeceased by his wife a month ago. Mr. Marcellus was born in Morrisburg, Dundas County, Ontario, and came to western Canada in 1889.

Lead Pencil Duty

Ottawa, Ont.—A value for duty purposes of 35 cents a gross was wood lead pencils was imposed by the Minister of National Revenue, when entered under the general or intermediate tariff rates. On coopers' keg stock special values were set on keg staves, hoops and headstaps.

NEW JAP PREMIER

Chosen as non-party Premier of Japan to succeed Premier Tsuchioka Inukai, recently assassinated, Admiral Makoto Saotome (above), is a former Governor of Korea, and was a delegate to the Geneva naval conference in 1927. His appointment by the Emperor is said to have met with the approval of all parties.

Economic Conference

Powers May Meet Around a Council Table in London

Washington.—The United States has responded favorably to a British suggestion that the world powers meet around a council table in London, England, to seek ways of alleviating economic distress.

Ambassador Andrew W. Mellon in London, was instructed to inform Great Britain that the United States thought such a conference "might be of real value in the present depression." He will make it plain, however, that his country will not discuss war debts and reparations.

Britain also is suggesting the conference to France, Italy and the other powers.

The British move for an economic conference follows by almost a year President Hoover's proposal for a moratorium on inter-governmental debts. Once again the world's economic plight has called forth extraordinary measures to meet it.

Object To Privy Council

Free State Republicans Resent Appeals To Highest Tribunal In Empire

Dublin, Ireland.—The Republican Government of the Irish Free State is drafting a bill to wipe out appeals to the judicial committee of the Privy Council, the highest tribunal in the empire.

The government, it is understood, hopes to submit the bill to the Dáil Eireann before the summer adjournment on July 8. It is an adjunct to the proposals to withhold payment of the land annuities to Great Britain, and to abolish the parliamentary oath of allegiance to the crown.

The right of appeal to the Privy Council is already in effect virtually inoperative in the Free State.

Balloonists Make A Record Flight

U.S. Army Balloon No. 2 Lands Near Hatton, Saskatchewan

Hatton, Sask.—Dogged by adverse weather conditions throughout the long flight, United States army balloon No. 2, under command of Lieutenant Wilfred J. Paul, landed in a driving rain storm 14 miles north of here, winning the National Balloon race from Omaha, Nebraska, and probably setting a new world's duration record for balloons of its capacity.

Lieut. Paul and his co-pilot, Lieut. J. H. Bishop, of Scott Field, Ill., had only a vague idea of their whereabouts when they came to earth. In a make-shift shelter the two weary aviators curled up and slept until daylight, when they set about dismantling the big ship which had not been damaged by the severe electrical storm.

On arrival here, Lieut. Paul told of his experiences on the trip. "We took off from Omaha at 7:30 p.m. May 30," he said, "sailing due north. Several severe lightning storms were narrowly averted during the first night, to avoid which it was necessary to expend a great deal of our ballast supply."

"The next morning found us still sailing in the storm area and above the clouds at an altitude of 12,000 feet. Rain was with us constantly and both Bishop and myself were soaking wet throughout the flight."

Oppose Tank Warfare

Outlawry Of Heavy Tanks Urged At Disarmament Conference

Geneva, Switzerland.—The outlawry of heavy tanks as offensive weapons of war, was urged before the land commission of the disarmament conference Wednesday, June 1, by Lord Stanhope, of Great Britain. He declared that Britain would be prepared to scrap all tanks of 25 tons or more, but favored the retention of lighter tanks for ordinary police work.

Hugh R. Wilson, United States delegate, criticized the commission for its inability to arrive at definitions that would draw a line between tanks and armored cars. Apparently political questions, he said, were dictating the attitude of the experts on this question.

Unanimous agreement was reached by the naval commission to extend the age of battleships from 20 to 26 years. The 36-year-age limit for aircraft carriers, was maintained, however, as well as existing age limits on other categories.

Asks Protection For Mines

Fernie, B.C.—An appeal by Lorne A. Campbell, of Rossland, to the Associated Boards of Trade of eastern British Columbia to "do something to help the coal towns of this section," featured the opening session of the 32nd annual convention. If the unfair competition of U.S. fuel oil for railway use was not contracted Mr. Campbell declared, the mines must soon close.

OATH ABOLITION MIGHT ISOLATE IRISH FREE STATE

Dublin, Ireland.—If the Republican Government's bill to abolish the parliamentary oath of allegiance to the king is passed, the Free State runs the risk of becoming a small, isolated state, Senator Bagwell, independent and opponent of the government, told the senate during debate.

The Free State would be thrown back on her own resources, would be without credit in the civilized world and bereft of all the advantages of the British connection, Senator Bagwell warned.

Contrary to expectations the House was not filled when debate was resumed. There was no indication of any easing of the differences between government and opposition members over the bill and its consequences, one of which will be the elimination of further negotiations with Great Britain.

Senator Wilson, farmer representative and government supporter, argued that even if the oath were removed the king would remain in the constitution as a symbol of the commonwealth.

"I am not frightened by the threat of dire consequences if we pass the bill," declared Senator Johnson, leader of the Labor party. He asserted that far from violating the provisions of the Anglo-Irish treaty, the oath had fully implemented that agreement.

During debate in the dail on financial resolution, former finance minister Ernest Blythe said many people who were living on incomes derived outside the Free State had left the country and many more intended leaving.

Wednesday night, June 1, it was learned the Dublin tobacco manufacturers, Gallagher, Limited, had given 200 employees a week's notice and had announced the firm would close down. The announcement said it would not carry on in the face of differential duty rates now included in the budget.

New Trade Agreement

United States and France Sign Pact Which Will Stimulate Business

Paris, France.—The United States and France have concluded a trade agreement which cleared the way for increased American imports and wiped out uncertainties against which United States business men have been forced to contend under the French quota system.

The accord grants the United States most favored nation treatment on imports now limited by quotas. Under the States business men have suffered about $2,500,000 as a result of the quotas. It was estimated that the agreement would recoup $500,000 of this loss.

Being Held At Border

Holiday Makers Detained At Victoria By United States Authorities

Victoria, B.C.—A number of holiday-makers from the United States who came to Victoria on Memorial Day excursions were held by United States Immigration Authorities here, waiting investigation of their right to return to the United States. Many former Britishers and Canadians took advantage of the holiday to return to Victoria, where they formerly resided. Some of them had entered the United States when regulations were not so strict, and because of long residence there, believed they had a right to remain.

Newspaper Advertising

Toronto, Ont.—One New York department store sold more than $96,000,000 worth of merchandise last year through the medium of newspaper advertising, which cost less than $2,000,000, C. H. Henry, local advertising man, told the Advertising and Sales' Club meeting here.

Death Penalty For Kidnapping Washington.—The Cochran bill to make inter-state kidnapping a federal crime punishable by death was approved by the United States House of Representatives judiciary committee.

How to Keep from Growing Old

Here's one way of hastening the day of reckoning. These daredevil motorcycle riders of the British Army signal corps are demonstrating a simple method of changing wheels of the sidcar while travelling at fifty miles an hour. The exhibition was one of the thrillers staged by the motorbike men at a tournament at Tidworth, England.

GLYCERIN MIX REMOVES

CAUSE OF STOMACH GAS

Simple glycerin, buckhorn bark, saline, etc., as mixed in Adlerika, acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel, removing poisons you never thought were there and which caused gas and other stomach trouble. Just ONE spoonful relieves GAS, sour stomach, sick headache and constipation. Don't take medicine which cleans only PART of bowels, but let Adlerika give you a REAL cleaning and see how good you feel! It will surprise you! J. F. CLARKE, Drug-gist.

Pasture for any number of stock: well fenced, lots of water. Apply Henry Giebelhaus. 12

Wanted, Legs of Pork. Royal Cafe.

The places of business in Stony Plain will close at 1 p.m. on Wednesdays.

L. A's Lawn Party.

A garden party will be held at the home of Mr and Mrs J H Lory on Friday, June 10, at 7.30 p.m.

A sale of home cooking will be held, tea and ice cream will be served; and there will also be added attractions in the way of games and competitions, under auspices United church L. A.

Everybody welcome. Come and have a good time.

Holborn Happenings.

A meeting of the Holborn U.F.W.A. was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs F Maier, the purpose of the meeting being to make a quilt for Bethany Lodge.

The Holborn boys were very disappointed at the non-arrival of Graminia's baseball team last Sunday. The boys are hoping to see them next Sunday.

A successful U. F. A. joint meeting was held at the Hall Saturday evening, to receive and discuss the reports of the various committees in charge of the Victoria Day celebration.

A free cooking demonstration will be given at the Hall June 20, 21, 22 by the Women's Bureau of Alberta. All bachelors welcome.

The local ferry service was temporarily suspended during the recent high water on the river.

A very pleasant bridge party was held Sat. Evg. at the home of Mr and Mrs H F McKinnon.

Mr A Anderson is reported to be well on the way to recovery from the injury received on May 24th.

The Holborn athletic club are planning a big dance for the evening of Friday next, June 17th. Barth's orchestra will supply the music. Everybody welcome.

Mrs T Miller, Calgary, is visiting at the home of her brother, Mr F Williams, of this district.

Edmonton Beach.

Mr Jack Barrie will celebrate the fifteenth anniversary of the opening of Edmonton Beach summer resort. When Mr Barrie starts anything, he don't do it by halves, so the big celebration, billed for next Saturday, will be no exception. There will be fun galore and all kinds of games during the afternoon. As an inducement to patrons to partake of the cooling refreshments, he has made a very sporting offer, something in the nature of a 1/10 sale; the offer is 1 ice cream cone for a nickel and 2 for 6c; and so on down the list to soft drinks, 1 for 5c & 2 for 6c.

There will be a big dance in the evening, up to twelve o'clock; when the well-known and popular Martia music will be provided.

The 1c sale idea applies also to the dance, when gentlemen will pay 25c for admission, and a couple will be taxed 28c. Young gentlemen will find this a splendid occasion for giving their girls a swing around the dance floor at a very low cost—as the advt. say.

Spruce Grove Ladies' Aid.

The Ladies' Aid of United church, Spruce Grove, will hold a Strawberry Social and Tea on Friday evening, June 17. Mrs G Rice and Troupe, of Edmonton, are holding a concert later in the evening. The Aid will also have a sale of home cooking.

Admission to concert, 35c for adults.

Spruce Grove News.

Mrs Wm McLeod is recuperating from a severe attack of flu. She is spending a short holiday with friends in Edmonton.

Mr Jack Nichol was a business visitor to the Grove on Tuesday. According to a report from Jack, his new cafe at the Beach is now open for business.

Herman Loeblich pitched for the Royals in their big game Tuesday night with the Young Liberals.

Mr Julius Kulovich, popular owner of the shoe and harness repair shop, intends to open in his annex a modern "Shoe Shine".

Messrs R N Sherwin and E Pinchbeck represented the Spruce Grove congregation at the meeting at Stony which extended a call to Rev W E Sieber.

Mr Ed Larsen spent a very enjoyable week end in the City with friends.

Mr Ph Schram has been gazetted a Commissioner for Oaths.

While Mr Fred Goebel was motoring to Edmonton Thursday last the wires connected with the engine mechanism short circuited, creating a lot of smoke from the smouldering fire. After this was attended to, a friend happening along just then with his truck towed the outfit to a City garage.

The recent heavy rains have put the side roads in a bad shape, some of these being at most impassable.

Trains Cancelled

The two new trains, Nos. 11 and 12, which were to have started running next Sunday on the Canadian National Ry. have been cancelled indefinitely, on orders from the East. The cancellation is due, possibly, to economic reasons. The two new trains were to have run in addition to passenger trains 1 and 2. Nos 1 and 2 passenger trains will continue as usual, with a slight change in the running time.

Wheat Bonus Time Extended

The Canadian Government will extend the date at which the 5c bu. bonus on wheat expires from June 15 to June 30. One of the reasons given for the break of over 4c in the price of wheat at Winnipeg last Saturday was the rush of farmers to get the balance of their wheat to the elevators in time to get the benefit of the bonus.

Burke fitted the key into the lock of the door and turned it suitably.

"You prim little thing! I was only teasing you," he said. "Do you mean you're really as frightened as all that of what people may say? I thought you were above minding gossip of ill-natured scoundrelmongers."

Jean grasped eagerly at the excuse. It would serve to hide the real motive of her impulsive action.

"No woman can afford to ignore scandal," she answered quickly. "After all, a woman's happiness depends mostly on her reputation."

Burke's eyes narrowed suddenly. He looked at her speculatively, as though her words had suggested a new train of thought, but he made no comment. Somewhat abstractedly he opened the door and allowed her to pass out and down the stairs. Outside the door of the inn they found the mare and dog-cart in charge of an ostler.

"The mare's foot's rather badly torn, sir," volunteered the man, "but the blacksmith thinks she'll travel all right. Far to go, sir?"

"Nine or ten miles," responded Burke laconically.

He was curiously silent on the way home. It was as though the chain of reasoning started by Jean's comment on the relation scandal bears to a woman's happiness still absorbed him. His brows were knit together morosely.

Jean supposed he was probably reproaching himself for his conduct that afternoon. After all, she reflected, he was normally a man of decent instincts, and though the flood-tide of his passion had swept him into taking advantage of the circumstances which had flung them together in the solitude of the little inn, he would be the first to agree, when in a less lawless frame of mind, that his conduct had been unpardonable. Although, even from that, one could not premise that he would not be equally culpable another time!

Blaise had proved painfully correct in his estimate of the dangers attaching to unexplored bombs. Jean admitted it to herself ruefully. And she was honest enough also to admit that, with his warning ringing in her ears and with the memory of what had happened in the rose-garden to illumine it, she herself was not altogether clear of blame for the incidents of the afternoon.

She had played with Burke, even encouraged him to a certain extent, allowing him to be in her company far more frequently than was altogether wise, considering the circumlocution of his hot-headed love for her. It was somewhat of a mental start of surprise that she found herself seeking for excuses for his behaviour—actually trying to supply adequate reasons why she should overlook it!

His brooding, sulky silence as he drove along, mile after mile, was not without its appeal to the inherent femininity of her. He did not try to excuse or palliate his conduct, made no attempt to sue for forgiveness. He loved her and he had let her see it; manlike, he had taken what the opportunity offered. And she didn't suppose he regretted it.

The faintest smile twined the corners of her lips. Burke was not the type of man to regret an unlawful kiss or two!

She was conscious that—as usual, where he was concerned—their virtuous indignation was oozing away in the most discreditable and hopeless fashion. There was an audacious charm about the man, an attractiveness that would not be denied in the hot-headed way he went, all out, for what he wanted.

Other women besides Jean had found it equally difficult to resist. His sheer virility, with its splendid disregard for other people's claims and the consciousness that the battle should assuredly be to the strong, earned him forgiveness where, for misdeeds not half so flagrant, a less impetuous sinner would have been promptly shown the door.

But no woman—not even the women to whom he had made love without excuse of loving—had ever shown Burke the door or given him the kind of treatment which he had thoroughly well merited twenty times over. And Jean was no exception to the rule.

At least he had some genuine claim on her forgiveness—the claim of a love which had swept through his very being like a flame, the fierce passion of a man to whom love meant adoration, worship—above all, possession.

And what woman can ever remain angry with a man who loves her—and whose very offence is the outcome of the overmastering quality of that love? Very few, and certainly none who was as very much a woman, so essentially feminine as Jean.

It was in a very small voice, which she endeavoured to make airily detached, that she at last broke the silence which had reigned for the last six miles or so.

"I suppose I shall have to forgive you—more or less. One can't exactly quarrel with one's next door neighbour."

Burke smiled grimly.

"Can't one?"

"Well, there's Judith to be considered."

A rather curious expression came into his eyes.

"Yes," he agreed. "There's Judith to be considered." There was a hint of irony in the dry tones.

"It would complicate matters if I were not on speaking terms with her brother," pursued Jean.

She waited for his answer, but none came. The threatened possibility contained in her speech seemed to have fallen on deaf ears, and the silence seemed likely to continue indefinitely. Jean prompted him gently.

"You might, at least, say you are sorry for—"

"For kissing you?"—swiftly.

"Yes—kissing a lady."

"But I'm not kissing you"—with deliberation—"in one of the things I shall never regret. When I come to make my peace with Heaven and repent in sackcloth and ashes for my sins of omission and commission, I shan't include this afternoon in the list, I assure you. It was worth it if I pay for it afterwards in hell."

He was silent a moment. Then: "But I'll promise you one thing, I'll never kiss you again till you give me your lips yourself."

Jean smiled at the characteristic speech. She supposed this was as near an apology as Burke would ever get.

"That's all right, then," she replied composedly. "Because I shall never do that."

He flicked the chestnut lightly with the whip.

"I think you will," he said. "I think"—he looked at her somewhat enigmatically—"that you will give me everything I want—some day."

CHAPTER XXIII

On the Side Of The Angels

Throughout the day following that of the expedition to Dartmoor, Nick seemed determined to keep out of Jean's way. It was as though he feared she might force some confidence from him that he was loth to give, and in consequence, deliberately avoided being alone with her.

On the second day, however, as luck would have it, she encountered him in the corridor just outside her own sitting-room. He was striding blindly along, obviously not heeding where he was going, and had almost collided with her before he realized that she was there.

He jerked himself backwards.

"I beg your pardon," he muttered, still without looking at her, and made as though to pass on.

Jean checked him with a hand on his sleeve. She had not watched the dogged silliness of his face throughout yesterday to no purpose, and now, as her swift gaze searched it anew.

she was convinced that something fresh had occurred to stir him. It was impossible for Jean to see a friend in trouble without wanting to "stand by."

"Nick, old thing, what's wrong?" she asked.

He stared at her unseeing.

"Wrong?" he muttered. "Wrong?" "Yes. Come in here and let's talk it out—whatever it is." With gentle insistence she drew him into her sitting-room.

"Now," she said, when she had established him in an easy chair by the open window and herself in another, "what's gone wrong? Are you still boiling over about that trick Sir Adrian played on Claire the day of the picnic?"

She spoke lightly—more lightly than the occasion warranted—of set purpose, hoping to reduce the tension under which Nick was obviously labouring. His face hurt her. The familiar lazy insolence which was half its charm was blotted out of it by some heavy cloud tragic significance. He looked as though he had not slept for days, and his eyes, the gaily burnt out of them by pain, seemed sunken in his head.

He stared at her blankly for a moment. Then he seemed to awaken to the meaning of her question.

A Remedy For Earsache.—To have the earache is to endure torture. The ear is a delicate organ and few care to deal with it, considering it useful for a doctor. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil offers a simple remedy. A few drops upon a piece of lint or medicated cotton and placed in the ear will do much in relieving pain.

On Monday Magistrate E Williams gave his verdict in the assault cases between Mike Soldan and Joe Schmigelski. As a result of the fight between these two parties, Mr. Soldan laid 2 charges against Joe Schmigelski, one for threatening with a gun, and the other for assault; while Joe countered with a charge for assault against Mike.

The Magistrate found Mike guilty and fined him $10, together with costs amounting to $16.

The charge against Joe Schmigelski of threatening with a gun was dismissed, but he was found guilty of a technical assault and fined $100. Mr. Fraser Duncan appeared for Mr. Soldan; G. J. Bryan for Mr. Schmigelski.

Sporting Notes

Leduc intends holding its regular Dominion Day celebration this year, as usual; and our local basketball and baseball teams are expecting to receive invitations to their sporting events. Among the attractions there on that day will be a hard time parade and possibly a barbecue.

Sunday's ball game: Walter league 4, Duffield 3. Stony battery: E Enders and Eddie Mayer.

The Sporting Editor is awaiting further news of the proposed contest between Hy Mitchell and H. Hausler. Mr. Henry Sinner, the latter's manager, is getting his man in good shape, and Henry expects the Referee will be holding his man's hand up in the air at the end of the tenth round, as a sign of victory.

Rain storms have interfered so much with the scheduled games in the Baseball League team managers are puzzling over whether to play their postponed games or stick to the card arrangement.

Brightbank News

Wedding bells will shortly be sweetly ringing in this district—maybe about Friday June 10th.

The two 8-week old Eastern Canadian black bear cubs seen above were born on the Wedgewood Hunting and Fishing Club grounds at Bissett, P.Q. They arrived in Montreal accompanied by Arthur Beauséjour, well known guide. They've been called Michael and Mary. As shown by the photograph, and photographs cannot lie, these two babies took early advantage of their first introduction to civilization, to telephone Mother, though a little late for Mother's Day, to assure her they were being well looked after. Michael is listening in while Mary is doing the telephoning. They have been fed on tinned milk since their capture, but sugar is also a favorite article of diet.

The cubs were brought to Montreal by Canadian Pacific Express and went on to New York from the Windsor Station.
